Cascade Dismantling Joint

Cascade Dismantling Joints are used for mounting and removing flanged fittings from a pipeline by means of extending the joints face to face length bridging the gap between fittings in a pipeline network. PN16 nominal pressure available in sizes from DN40 to DN1800, DN2000 can be made on request.

PN25 and PN40 also available on request.

Specifications

- Sleeves, rim, flanges – Cast Iron (# 1, 2 and 3).
- Bolts, pins and nuts (# 5 + 6) galvanised steel – Stainless fixings available on request.
- Seal – EPDM (# 4).
- Anti-rust epoxy coating.
- (DN) from DN40 – DN1800